

Conducting a Heat Awareness Survey

Involve trusted community leaders, researchers and other subject matter experts throughout the process of developing your survey.

The outputs from the survey should be used to inform your planning and implementation processes going forward, and to build support for your activities.

Survey

- Age and income
- Outdoor or indoor work
- Access to air conditioning or cool spaces
- Heat risk perception
- Knowledge of protective actions
- Behavior during heat waves

